

Living in Kansas

NOVEMBER 2013

ansas

WANDA HOOVER

JDRF WALK VIP RECEPTION

WHERE Loca Luna

Hosted by corporate chairman Paul Esterer, executive managing director of Newmark Grubb Arkansas, this reception honored sponsors of the annual walk to benefit Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. The walk provides a fun, active and easy way to support JDRF research. 📷

Shannon Duke, Sue Tull and Erin Reynolds

Denise and Fletcher Hanson

Cindy Baker, Tate Whitesich and Betsy Davies

Francie and Tom Ross

Paul Esterer and Troy Duke

Karen Williams and Marcia Guy

Tony and Allie Ripley

Chris Jennings and Melinda Gunnell

Leland Charles Smith, Charlie Groppetti, Todd Smith and Whitney Cummings

Karen Faherty and Kristin Clark

Brad Lacy and Laura Davis

Kayla Roberts and Mari Eilbott

Judy Fess, Sarah McGinty and Rebekah Fess

PARK HILL HOME GRAND OPENING

WHERE Park Hill Home

Park Hill Home celebrated its grand opening with friends and clients at an after-hours party. Proprietors Todd Smith and Charlie Groppetti mingled with guests and shared the latest trends in home interiors. Formerly in historic Park Hill, their new location is open in downtown Conway. 📷

RECOVERY: THE WORLD TRADE CENTER OPENING RECEPTION

WHERE Laman Library

Maureen Mitchell lost her husband, a New York City Fire Department lieutenant, on 9/11. She spoke of that day, along with her volunteer work at the Tribute Center in New York, at the opening reception of this exhibit. The exhibit, which runs through Dec. 1, includes a timeline of the 9/11 attacks, interpretive panels and more than 100 photographs and artifacts, tracing the recovery operation after 9/11. 📷

Dan, Stella and Lynnette Noble

Bob Mauldin, Gerald Tucker, Charlie Platt and Brian Miller

Glenda McClain and Michelle Ketzcher

Maureen Mitchell and Jeff Baskin

Aaron and Stefanie Keehn

Jim Buckner, Jim Woolly, Chris Komegay, Jeff Parker and John Webb